

LIG Loyalty Club

Unless you are in the heart of the Cape wine country, it's difficult to discover new favourites. Doomed to the selection of your local shop. Trust LIG, we seek out the gems. We take time finding the wineries where people really love what they do, and the wine is made with passion. This is where you learn about the grape. Join us on this journey where we discover wonderful wines that we can share with you. Each month we find some new wines to try, and share old favourites that have been released. The smaller wineries don't have massive budgets to market themselves. They put everything into making a good wine, and rely on the product to sell itself, which can make it difficult for you to find those well-loved wines.

LIG swish and sample for you, helping you find your perfect wine.
